

Board Policy Regarding Friends

Friends of this Fellowship are persons who have not signed the membership book, but who meet these requirements:

- a. Friends have consented in writing to be a Friend, indicating agreement with the purpose of this organization, and
- b. While encouraged to make an annual financial pledge, Friends are required to contribute financially to the operating budget of the Fellowship each fiscal year.

Friends are not to be counted as members for the purpose of statistical reports.

Friends may serve on all committees and teams except the Board of Directors, Leadership Development, Endowment, Associations, and Stewardship. They may act as chair on all other committees and teams, except for Worship, Social Justice, and Newcomers and Membership.
